sewhere that the annual meeting of stockholders of the Savannah Valley will be held at Lowndesville on Messrs. Wilkins, Poe & Co., of Greenville, present an elaborate advertisement of their business to the readers of the Intelligencer in a supplement this week.

It will be of interest to those persons who wish to purchase any kind of agricultural implements or hardware.

Mr. Geo. Stewart, of Savannah township, died on the 18th ult., after a protracted illness. He leaves a wife and four children, besides a large family connection, to mourn his death. His remains were interred at Cross Roads Baptist Church. He was a good citizen, and will be greatly missed in the community in which he resided.

We direct attention to the change in Mr. A. Lesser's advertisement this week.

It is useless for us to speak of Mr. Less-er's goods and prices, as every one knows that bargains can always be secured in his establishment. His stock of Spring and Summer goods is replete, and when out shopping be sure to drop in and see him.

Last Thursday we were the recipient of a dish of large, luscious strawberries, surrounded by a wreath of beautiful and fragrant flowers, from Mrs. G. Ernest Brown. They were the first strawberries we had seen this season. We kept them on exhibition in our sanctum for several days, and they attracted the admiration of every visitor. Mrs. Brown will please accept many thanks.

At an election held in Grace (Episcopal) Church on the 27th ult., the following gentlemen were elected to serve the Church in the various positions for the ensuing year: Wardens—V. F. Martin and

E. M. Rucker; Vestrymen—E. M. Rucker, S. M. Orr, E. A. Bell, R. C. Webb, E.

T. Parker, C. W. Webb and L. L. Green;

Delegates to Diocesan Convention—E.

M. Rucker, E. A. Bell and E. L. Parker.

We are informed that the beautiful and commodious church about to be erected in Pelzer is the gift of Francis J. Pelzer, Esq., of Charleston, in whose honor the town is named, to the Pelzer Manufacturing Company, and is not being erected by the efforts of the different denominations there, though it will be occupied by them all on different days. We copied the statement, now corrected, from the Greenville News.

Mr. Henry Groce, of Greenville, Ga., has been awarded the contract for the rebuilding of the University Boarding House, and has commenced work. The building will cost $37,000. It will be rebuilt on the old site, and will be two stories high. Mr. Groce is a brother-in-law of Mr. John H. Jones. He thinks Anderson's prospects are very bright, and has decided to locate here. We extend him a cordial welcome.

Hon. J. E. Boggs, of Pickens, paid

Anderson a visit of a few days last week.

Mr. Boggs has been an able and efficient representative of his County in the House of Representatives. He is a candidate for re-election, and will doubtless be returned by his constituents with an increased majority, as a tribute to his past service.

In addition to his interest in politics, Mr.

Boggs is one of the leading lawyers at the Pickens Bar.

Walhalla Courier: "The Perry Brothers have received eight knitting machines for their stocking factory in Walhalla, which are being placed in position, ready to commence work about the first of May.

The capacity of each of these machines is about four to five dozen stockings per day. This will be a new and important industry for this section of country, and we hope it will prove profitable to the young men who have made this venture in manufacturing in our midst."

In company with our young friend Wile, Mr. Crayton took a horseback ride last Tuesday afternoon out to the Generosee Stock Farm. We arrived there just as the big herd of cattle were being stabled for the night. Notwithstanding the lateness of the hour and our limited time, we could not resist the opportunity of going through the stables and looking at the fine cattle. It is a sight worth walking miles to see. At some future time we propose telling our readers something about this enterprise.

Our Pickens friends are anxious for the Savannah Valley Railroad to be extended to that place. The Sentinel, of last week, says: "Should the Savannah Valley Railroad be extended to this place, it is evident that Liberty Station and township will make an earnest effort to have the road extended via that place. The question is now being quietly agitated, and the friends of the movement claim that the road via that place would be shorter and develop a better section of country than it would via Easley Station."

On last Saturday afternoon a number of citizens gathered at Mr. E. B. Murray's fish pond in the city to see the new steam fire engine, "Pioneer," recently purchased by the City Council, tested. Dr. R. F.

Divver was in charge of the engine, and soon had it properly fired up, but finding that the whistle and some other parts were off, the test was delayed until he could procure others from his machine shop.

Soon after his return steam was raised, and the stream of water started. Owing to air leaks, however, the stream did not reach near the height which was expected—the stream only going some fifty feet into the air. With a little experience we have no doubt the engine will prove effect. Dr. Divver will thoroughly overhaul the various parts of the engine, and put it in first-class order. As it stands now, the engine will throw a stream to the top of any house in Anderson.

The Merchants of Belton.

We are requested to announce that from the first day of May inst., to the 31st day of August next, inclusive, the merchants of Belton will close their doors at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturdays excepted. Persons having business in Belton will do well to remember this notice.

Good Templars.

Mr. Editor: Below I give you the officers of Whitefield Lodge, I. O. of G. T., who are to be installed for the ensuing quarter:

P. C. Opt, W. C. T.; Mrs. E. E. Opt, W.

V. T.; D. J. Varnadore, F. Sec.; S. J.

Varnadore, Treas.; E. V. Elrod, Chap.;

E. V. McCoy, W. M.; J. W. Varnadore,

I. G.; C. M. Elrod, O. G.; E. M. Ambrose,

P. W. C. T. and Lodge Deputy; Miss Mollie Morgan and Miss Nancy Elrod, Left and Right Hand Supporters.

This Lodge is in good working order, and we hope to have the co-operation of the entire community in the noble work, so that we may hasten the day when the temperance banner will wave over this beautiful land, and the great evil of intemperance be driven from our midst.

To save the rising generation from the curse of intemperance, is our motto.

Whitefield's Eye Water is a sure cure — A Washington correspondent of the New Orleans Times says: D. T. Corbin, of South Carolina, who has been elected a Republican delegate to the Chicago Convention, is now in Washington, accompanied by his wife. He informed your correspondent that South Carolina's Republican delegates were about equally divided between Arthur and Edmunds, but on the first ballot all of the delegates except Small, who is for Logan, will probably vote for Arthur.
